To Whom It May Concern:

I work for a medium-sized non profit which serves youth and families experiencing housing instability in Pennsylvania. I also participate on the Lehigh Valley Regional Homeless Advisory Board.

I oppose the changes to the Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) regulations proposed by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), for the following reasons:

The proposed changes will encourage banks to seek out large dollar community development deals to quickly get to a single total dollar volume metric and discourage loans to people with low- and moderate-incomes LMI and small businesses because the loans are much smaller, The proposal redefines community development to include large infrastructure projects like stadium improvements in LMI Opportunity Zones which further encourages banks to seek out larger deals over smaller loans to meet the ratio for the total dollar volume metric, The definition of affordable housing would be relaxed to include middle-income housing in high cost areas

Housing in my community has become essentially unattainable, let alone affordable. Even substandard housing units are still available for rent at excessive costs.

It is clear that the proposed rules would weaken CRA. The focus on LMI communities would be lost - the exact intent of CRA when it was signed in 1977. This backtracking would violate the agencies' obligation under the statute to ensure that banks are continually serving community needs. The FDIC and OCC need to discard the proposal, and instead work with the Federal Reserve Board to create an interagency rule that will augment the progress achieved under CRA instead of reversing it.
