

In Re: CornerStone Bank, N.A.
Lexington, Virginia
Application for Federal Deposit Insurance

ORDER

The undersigned, acting on behalf of the Board of Directors of the FDIC, pursuant to delegated authority, has fully considered all available facts and information relevant to the factors of Section 6 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and relating to the application for Federal deposit insurance for CornerStone Bank, N.A., a proposed new National bank to be located at Lot 1 of the Northeast Corner of Intersection of Main Street and Nelson Street, and open in temporary quarters at 457 E. Nelson Street, both sites in Lexington, Virginia, and has concluded that the application should be approved.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the application submitted by CornerStone Bank, N.A. for Federal deposit insurance be and is hereby approved subject to the following conditions:

- (1) That beginning paid-in capital funds of not less than $9,000,000 be provided, of which not less than $4,500,000 shall be allocated to common capital and not less than $4,500,000 to surplus;
- (2) That the Tier 1 capital to assets leverage ratio (as defined in the appropriate capital regulation and guidance of the institution's primary federal regulator) will be maintained at not less than eight percent throughout the first three years of operation and that an adequate allowance for loan and lease losses will be provided;
- (3) That any changes in proposed management or proposed ownership (10% or more of stock), including new acquisitions of or subscriptions to 10% or more of the stock, shall be approved by the FDIC prior to opening of the bank;
- (4) That Federal deposit insurance shall not become effective unless and until the applicant has been granted a charter as a depository institution, that it has authority to conduct a banking business, and that its establishment and operation as a bank have been fully approved by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency;
- (5) That until the bank is established, the Corporation shall have the right to alter, suspend, or withdraw the said commitment should any interim development be deemed to warrant such action; and,

- (6) That if deposit insurance has not become effective within twelve months from the date of this ORDER, or unless, in the meantime, a request for an extension of time has been approved by the Corporation, the consent granted shall expire at the end of the said twelve-month period.

Dated at Atlanta, Georgia, this 20th day of August, 2008.
